About This Game

Story

Hiyoko and Michiko were on their way home when Hiyoko became the victim of a terrible accident. Upon waking up, Hiyoko found herself in a familiar place, but surrounded by unfamiliar faces, three girls Yukiko, Miyuki, and Aiko, who all claimed they were Hiyoko's best friends in college.

However, Hiyoko didn't know them at all. Only when she finally looked at the date did she realize, she had been thrust back three years into the past, when she was still in college. Hiyoko chose to be honest, and told them that she had no recollection of anything. However, she still kept the fact that she was from a parallel-future, a secret.

Hiyoko tried to figure out how she could return to her own world, and why she was sent here in the first place. And who was this girl she replaced? Was it really her, or something far more sinister?

Then suddenly, a new student, Ayano, arrived who threw everything out of balance when Ayano claims that she knew who Hiyoko really was...
